

Department of Justice

UNITED STATES ATTORNEY'S OFFICE EASTERN DISTRICT OF MISSOURI

October 27, 2014
For Immediate Release

FORMER BOEING PROCUREMENT OFFICER & TWO SUB-CONTRACTORS SENTENCED ON FEDERAL FRAUD CHARGES

St. Louis, MO – Former Boeing Procurement Officer Deon Anderson was sentenced to 20 months in prison in connection with a bribery/kickback scheme involving Boeing military aircraft parts, as well as structuring currency transactions to conceal his receipt of the cash bribes. Co-defendants William P. Boozer, Hacienda Heights, CA, was sentenced to 18 months in prison, a fine of $10,000; and Robert Diaz, Jr., Alta Loma, CA, was sentenced to 15 months in prison and a fine of $2000.

Boeing Company Defense Space and Security Division is a defense contractor providing military style aircraft to the United States Department of Defense and the United States armed services with offices and procurement operations located in St. Louis. Deon Anderson was a Procurement Officer for Boeing, residing in the St. Louis area.

J. L. Manufacturing of Everett, Washington, is an aerospace job machine shop specializing in hard metals, with the capability of producing small to medium sized complex parts of ferrous and non-ferrous materials, and was a sub-contractor to Boeing on numerous United States government contracts. Jeffrey Lavelle, owner and operator of J. L. Manufacturing, directed the day to day operations of the company, and oversaw all financial aspects of the company.

Inland Empire and Associates, Inc., Las Vegas, Nevada, is engaged in consulting to defense aircraft manufacturers and parts suppliers, including consulting for J. L. Manufacturing. Robert Diaz, Jr. was the owner and operator of Inland Empire, and personally consulted to J. L. Manufacturing and Jeffrey Lavelle relative to numerous Boeing sub-contracts.

Globe Dynamics International, Inc., Santa Ana, California is a leader in producing small to large, close tolerance precision machined parts and the assembly of complex components. Globe Dynamics was a sub-contractor to Boeing on numerous United States government contracts. William Boozer, owner and operator of Globe Dynamics, directed the day to day operations of the company, including the submission of contract bids.

According to court documents and statements made in court, between November 2009 and February 2013, Boozer requested the Procurement Officer for Boeing, Deon Anderson, provide him with non-public competitor bid information and historical price information in connection with Boeing military aircraft part purchase order requests for quotes. They communicated by telephone and e-mail between California and St. Louis in code on a regular basis, Boozer frequently requesting "Isle 5", a coded reference to a "price check on aisle 5", understood by Anderson to be a request for historical price information and competitor bid information. Anderson gave the information to Boozer to be used in preparing and submitting bids on behalf of Globe Dynamics in response to approximately sixteen different Boeing requests for quotes relative to those various purchase orders, in exchange for cash payments. Of the sixteen bids Globe Dynamics was awarded seven purchase orders to supply United States military aircraft parts to Boeing totaling in excess of $1,500,000. The net benefit to Globe Dynamics on those seven purchase orders was approximately $116,339

Beginning in May 2011 and continuing through April 2013, Deon Anderson provided J.L. Manufacturing, through Lavelle and Diaz, non-public competitor bid information and historical price information in connection with one and more Boeing military aircraft part purchase order requests for quotes. Lavelle used that information in preparing and submitting bids on behalf of J.L. Manufacturing to Boeing for approximately nine different Boeing requests for quotes relative to those various purchase orders. Of the those nine, J.L. Manufacturing was awarded seven purchase orders to supply United States military aircraft parts to Boeing totaling in excess of orders totaled approximately $2,052,746. In exchange for that information they made cash payments to Anderson in St. Louis and in California.

Relative to the cash bribe payments he received, on more than one occasion Deon Anderson structured cash deposits into his personal checking account to conceal his bribe scheme.

Deon Anderson, 48, St. Louis pled guilty to three felony counts of mail fraud, one felony count of wire fraud, and one felony count of currency structuring in June. Co-defendants William P. Boozer, 60, Hacienda Heights, CA, and Robert Diaz, Jr., 55, Alta Loma, CA, also previously pled guilty to related charges. The defendants appeared today for sentencing before United States District Judge Henry Autrey, in St. Louis.

Co-defendant Jeffrey Lavelle, 53, Mukilteo, WA is scheduled for sentencing November 17, 2014.

This case was investigated by Defense Criminal Investigative Service, Federal Bureau of Investigation, NASA-Office of Inspector General, Air Force Office of Special Investigations, Navy Criminal Investigative Service, and Internal Revenue Service, Criminal Investigations.

Assistant United States Attorney Hal Goldsmith handled the case for the U.S. Attorney's Office.